

TESTIMONY BEGINS IN WINNES TRIAL

Jury Secured Late Monday and Attorneys Tell What They Will Try To Prove

Five Witnesses Heard
(By Associated Press)
Harlan, Ky., Jan. 25.—Five witnesses were examined at the morning session of the trial of Dr. H. C. Winnes, charged with the murder of Miss Laura Parsons, Pine Mountain school teacher. The prosecution attempted to prove that Winnes was not far behind Miss Parsons on her journey over the mountains to the school. John Day fixed the distance at about a quarter of a mile. The state won a point today when Circuit Judge Davis instructed the defense to confine itself to specifying in endeavoring to draw out the liberty given convicts at the road camp near Dillon, not far from the murder scene. The defense will endeavor to bring out the movements of eight negro prisoners.

Harlan, Ky., Jan. 25.—A jury was obtained to try Dr. H. C. Winnes, charged with killing Miss Laura Parsons, near Dillon, last September, in circuit court Monday afternoon. At 3:15 o'clock the state and defense announced that Andrew Queener, E. N. Miles, and James Stewart, all miners, would be accepted.

Rufus Wilson, assistant superintendent of construction at the convict camp near Dillon, was the first witness called by the state when the taking of testimony was opened shortly after 4 o'clock. Wilson testified that he was at the prison camp at the time Miss Parsons passed along the trail leading from Dillon to the Pine Mountain school. He also stated that Jerry Reed, Allen Porter and Sam Elery and a convict named Smidfield, were at work on the road at the time Miss Parsons passed the camp. While he was on the stand Attorney Floyd Byrd of Lexington, who is assisting in the prosecution of the case, brought a large map into the court room and had Wilson point out various locations which have played important parts in the murder mystery.

After the jury had been sworn in Commonwealth's Attorney J. D. Forrester, for the prosecution, and D. C. Jones, for the defense, made short statements outlining what each intended to prove. Attorney Forrester declared that the state would prove that Dr. Winnes followed closely behind Miss Parsons on the mountain trail; that he was on the trail at the same time as was Miss Parsons, and that while crossing the mountain he pretended that he was lost. The attorney also declared that the state would prove that Dr. Winnes' actions at the Pine Mountain school were peculiar and sufficient to arouse suspicion.

In the statement for the defense Attorney Jones declared that the defense would show that Dr. Winnes and Miss Parsons met for the first time at the railroad station at Dillon and that their actions there indicated that they had never seen each other before. The actions of Dr. Winnes, according to Attorney Jones, were at all times those of a gentleman, and he stated that the testimony would show that Winnes arrived at the school after 3 o'clock on the day Miss Parsons was murdered and began his examination of the cattle at the school at 4:15 o'clock. The conduct of Dr. Winnes, Mr. Jones said, has at all times been above reproach, and he recited how Dr. Winnes had voluntarily returned to Harlan county after the body of the murdered teacher had been found.

Dr. Winnes also went to the scene of the murder, Attorney Jones said, and there, in the presence of a large number of armed men, showed no signs of having been at the spot before. The defense will also show, the lawyer declared, that many other had an opportunity to commit the crime and that convicts and guards were on the mountain while Miss Parsons was passing over it. Evidence will also be introduced to show that one guard at the prison camp was discharged for attempting to clear up the mystery. Attorney Jones said, and he added that a witness will testify to the finding of bloody underwear in one of the convict's laundry bags.

STREETS LINED WITH TOBACCO WAGONS

Reports From Over State Show Higher Trend This Week and Heavy Offerings

Tobacco continues to pour into town for sale on the Richmond market. All streets leading to the warehouses are lined with wagons loaded down with weed. One man said that he has had his tobacco in town for two weeks and been unable to get it sold yet so great is the rush. Other towns are in similar shape. The market continues good for best grades here.

Marked Improvement Shown
Paris, Jan. 25.—The tobacco market today showed marked improvement over that of last week. Prices advanced from 2 to 5 cents on all medium good grades. A feeling of optimism has taken the place of the depression among the growers. The Bourbon House sold 60,285 pounds at an average of $15.49.

Market Is Unchanged
Mt. Sterling, Jan. 25.—The tobacco market today was about last week's. The Whitehall company sold 70,240 pounds at an average of $10.89; Clay and Deal sold 1,100 pounds at $2.73; H. V. Montgomery sold 1,470 pounds at $21.23; the Robertson House sold 55,525 pounds at $14.73; Bogie and Hall sold 75 pounds at $21.54; Bogie & Adcox sold 6,295 pounds at $22.32 and Henderson and Evans sold 7,195 pounds at $26.75.

Common Kinds Higher
Eminence, Jan. 25.—Low grades of tobacco were from $1 to $2 higher here today. Sales totaled 10,000 pounds, at an average of $18, the best of the season. The Lorillard Company had a buyer on the market for the first time, and he was bidding on all grades. Crops of 3,000 pounds or more averaged $13, $11, $34 and $32 a hundred.

Mayville, Jan. 25.—Tobacco here was by far the strongest of the season. More than 400,000 pounds were sold at prices ranging from 50c to $52. Receipts were very heavy, more than 200 bales coming in from Ohio with equally that much more on highways. One large crop averaged more than $10.

Dr. Sampey's Daughter
Elopes With Missionary
Friend here of Dr. J. R. Sampey, famous Baptist minister and educator, who lectured at the First Baptist church last winter, will be interested in this from Georgetown: Miss Elsie Sampey, 20, junior at Georgetown College, daughter of Rev. John R. Sampey professor in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, and author of religious books, and Rev. Ambrose C. Duggar, 23, in charge of the Baptist mission church in Colorado, eloped to Jeffersonville, Ind., and were married by a magistrate. Leaving Louisville for a destination supposed to be Colorado, they dropped a note advising the bride's father of the marriage. Dr. Sampey had opposed the young missionary's suit a year ago on ground that he wanted his daughter to keep her mind on her studies until she had graduated.

Much of the testimony of the defense, according to Attorney Jones, will be used to show that there were several others on the mountain at the time Miss Parsons was on the trail and that their time thus far has never been accounted for.

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Jan. 25.—The Times today says, "Gov. Morrow during the last days of the 1920 session of the General Assembly pledged the members of the Senate Rules Committee that if he called a special session of the legislature, he would not include redistricting in the call, according to a statement today by Senator William A. Perry, of the 38th district of Louisville. Perry issued his statement because of the discussion of the possibilities of calling a special session and if called, whether Congressional redistricting would be included in the call."

Perry, The Times says, asserts that Gov. Morrow's promise was made to Senators Clem Nunn and Charles M. Harris, democratic leaders, in exchange for their promise to permit all administrative bills then before the legislature to be called up for immediate passage.

COL. EDGAR WINS ITALIAN CROSS

Mrs. G. W. Evans and Miss Curaleen Smith have received clippings from a Detroit newspaper tellings of high honors conferred upon their first cousin, Col. C. Goodloe Edgar, by the Italian government. The paper said: "Col. C. Goodloe Edgar, president of the Edgar Sugar Company, and during the war in charge of the distribution of supplies to the air services of the Allies, has been made a commander of 'the order of the crown of Italy' by orders of King Victor Emmanuel. Col. Edgar has just received notice of the decoration, which was accompanied by the cross, although the citation was made last May."

"Notification of the citation came thru the war department at Washington, where Col. Edgar was stationed during the war. It was signed by the Italian minister of foreign affairs and sent to Col. Edgar by W. S. Biddle, adjutant general at Washington."

"When Col. Edgar took charge of the distribution of supplies from this country to the air services of England, France and Italy, the agents of three countries were bidding against each other for supplies. This resulted in the detriment of Italy, which lacked the financial assets of England and France."

"After Col. Edgar took charge England, France and Italy were each represented by two officers on Col. Edgar's staff. By distribution all supplies from this country through one office, instead of permitting governments to bid against each other, proved most satisfactory. The decoration from the Italian king is in appreciation of Col. Edgar's efforts to see that Italy received sufficient supplies for her air service."

Mrs. Thompson's Case

On grounds that Mrs. J. B. Thompson, charged with conspiracy in the murder on December 21, 1919, of her husband, will become a mother early in April, her case was passed until the next term of criminal court at Lexington. Dr. J. C. Garrick and Dr. Charles A. Vance were placed on the stand and they declared if she were placed on trial at this time the mental and physical strain would have a bad effect on her and the unborn child. Judge Stoll granted the motion for continuance and the date for her trial was set for April 4 next. Mrs. Thompson was married in Newport June 10, last, to Joseph Wearren. It will be recalled that her late husband was treated at a Richmond hospital for a mysterious case of whisky poisoning, a short time before he was killed in Lexington.

LOSING GAMBLER AND PAL ROB CRAP GAME

Newport, Ky., Jan. 25.—A gambling house being operated within a square of police headquarters was held up by two men and robbed of approximately $3,000. He asserted the dice were not on the square and demanded the return of his money. When it was not forthcoming he left the place, but returned soon after with a companion. Both men carried revolvers and the command "hands up" was obeyed with alacrity. It is said the players at the dice table were not molested. The game-keeper lost $3,000 to the two holdup men, who left after instructing the occupants of the room to keep their hands "high in the air until we get away."

$500 REWARD FOR NIGHT RIDERS

Gov. Morrow Say He Will Use
Every Means To Break It Up In Kentucky

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 25.—A reward of $500 will be offered by Governor Edwin P. Morrow for the arrest and conviction of any one of a dozen men who called Mr. Tomlin, a truck driver, to his door in Sherbourne, Fleming county, Saturday night and warned him not to haul any more tobacco to market. The governor is only awaiting official request from the county judge before acting, he said.

Mr. Morrow was notified by Fleming county authorities that a dozen men, unmasked, called at Tomlin's home and warned him. No threats were made, the governor was told. The men were unknown to Mr. Tomlin and it is believed they were not residents of Fleming county. Governor Morrow has not heard from County Attorney D. W. Doggett, Bath county, who with the sheriff expected to investigate reports of visitation by nightriders in that county.

The governor talked with Circuit Judge Henry Prewitt, however, and requested him to convene a special grand jury to consider the case. Judge Prewitt has a term of court in session now, and will probably have to wait until the regular term before calling a special grand jury.

Elderly People Need This In Medicine Chest

To relieve chronic constipation, always keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin handy.

NEARLY all people as they advance in age suffer from chronic constipation. Many, however, are indifferent to the laxative they use, on the theory that "they are all alike." That is a great mistake.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, for example, is a mild, gentle liquid laxative, and it does not lose its effect with repeated use. It so trains the bowels that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with.

A sixty-cent bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last many months. The prescription was written thirty years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, a well-known family doctor, who is himself now in his 82nd year and can appreciate what chronic constipation must mean to elderly people; how it brings on headaches, colds, loss of appetite and sleep, heaviness and a general dull feeling.

Every home that has an elderly man or woman should be provided with a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Eight million bottles were bought at drug stores last year. It is a truly wonderful constipation remedy.

TRY IT FREE

Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Every body new and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

ARMENIAN GIRL
PLEADS FOR SISTERS

Tragic Tale of Harem Victims' Sufferings.

More than ten thousand Armenian girls have been rescued from Turkish harems through the help and generosity of America. This is the statement given out by the Near East Relief, which is making the saving of these tragic victims of Turkish cruelty one of the most important features of its work.

That it is a work which in itself justifies the millions that America has spent in this stricken land is testified to by little Miss Eliza Dodurian, a twenty-year-old Armenian girl recently arrived in this country. Miss Dodurian, through the intervention of American missionaries, was herself soared the sufferings of exile and the horrors of slavery; but she knows all too well the terrible fate of her sisters and friends. It is for them—the soft-eyed little girls of fifteen and sixteen whom last she saw being torn from their mothers' arms and carried off on the saddle bows of the Turkish soldiers—that she makes her plea.

What their lives have been since then may be guessed by a look into the faces of any of the ten thousand who have passed through the Rescue Homes of the Near East Relief. Their heads bowed in shame, they creep into the American relief stations, trying vainly to hide the tattoo marks which proclaim to the world their story.

Thousands of these girls have been brought back to life and hope through the work of the Near East Relief. It is to rescue the one hundred thousand more still held captive that the Near East Relief is making its appeal this year.

"Male and Female"—Tonight
Assisting Cecil D. de Mille in the production of this new picture, "Male and Female," which is coming to local houses tonight and Wednesday, was Major Ian Hay-Beith, famous author of "The First Hundred Thousand." The picture is a screen version of Sir James M. Barrie's well known drama, "The Admirable Crichton," and Major Beith's advice in the creation of a true British atmosphere and real-life types was invaluable. He was present throughout the filming of the picture and became so enthusiastic over the production that he declared his intention of entering the scenario field in California as soon as his discharge from the British army could be effected. Barrie's whimsical story of the super-intelligent English butler, who dominated a party of lords and ladies on a desert island, and finally refused an offer of marriage from his master's daughter, has delighted thousands. Thomas Meighan has the leading role in the picture, with Gloria Swanson, Theodore Roberts, Lila Lee, Bebe Daniels and other famous players in important parts.

New Chorus Type in "39 East"
There have been chorus girls and chorus girls depicted on the screen, and invariably they have been of the same type—beautiful, seductive creatures, groomed in the latest Parisian fashion, leading a prize dog on the leash, with a host of millionaires ever at their feet clamoring to give them all their hearts desire. Constance Binney creates a new type of chorus girl in her portrayal of Penelope Penn in "39 East," the Rachel Crothers play shown in picture form at the local picture houses Friday next. Miss Binney, delightfully herself, sweet and demure, portrays the role of the daughter of a poor minister, who has been brought up in a careful though old-fashioned manner, and goes to the city to make her fortune. Contrary to the story of most chorus girls it was only after she failed to obtain other employment that she was forced to utilize her church choir training in the ranks of the chorus. However, association with the sophisticated "gold diggers" of the chorus did not taint Penelope, and even when she became a premiere danseuse she remained a sweet and wholesome girl.

WEAK; RUN-DOWN

Carolina Lady Got So She Could Just Drag.—"Cardui Built Me Up," She Declares.

Kernersville, N. C.—In an interesting statement regarding Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Mrs. Wesley Mabe, of near here, recently said: "I have known Cardui for years, but never knew its worth until a year or so ago. I was in a weakened, run-down condition. I became draggy—didn't eat or sleep to do any good; couldn't do anything without a great effort. I tried different remedies and medicines, yet I continued to drag.

"I decided to give Cardui a trial, and found it was just what I really needed. It made me feel much stronger soon after I began to use it. I began to eat more, and the nervous, weak feeling began to leave. Soon I was sleeping good.

"Cardui built me up as no other tonic ever did.

"I used Cardui with one daughter who was puny, felt bad and tired out all the time. It brought her right out, and soon she was as well as a girl could be. We think there is nothing like Cardui."

Do not allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. You may find it just what you really need. For more than 40 years it has been used by thousands and thousands, and found just as Mrs. Mabe describes. NC143

SPLENDID PLANT

PLEASES VISITORS

Manager B. Z. McKinney of Madison Laundry, Shows How His Good Work Is Done

In response to the invitation extended to the citizens of Richmond by Mr. B. Z. McKinney, owner and general manager of the Madison Laundry, to visit the plant any day during the week of January 17, the place took on the scene of an open house. The visitors found, to their surprise, a laundry plant which compared very favorably with plants of even larger cities than Richmond, and many compliments were paid to the young manager in having perfected such a splendid enterprise.

Mr. McKinney spared neither time nor efforts in taking his guests through the plant and explaining each and every detail. In his explanation to a representative of the Daily Register he gave the following information, which will give one an idea of the manipulation of his plant:

The washing is done by big machines having several pockets, connected with hot and cold water, and all the machines are driven off the main shaft. In running, the machines automatically reverse, going in one direction a while and then turn and go in an opposite course. The very latest formulas and the highest grade soaps, made by Proctor & Gamble, are used.

In the rough dry and wet wash department, each bundle is handled to itself, with no making of the goods. It is next to impossible to lose anything under this system. One day service is being given to the traveling public and all who are in urgent need of their bundles.

The power plant includes the boiler, from which every machine in the plant is heated. The big engine runs all the machinery, and plans are now under way for installing an electric generator. It takes something like two tons of coal daily to run the boiler.

The flat work ironer is the best type of machine for this kind of work. Goods are fed into the machine on one side damp, and comes out on the other side ironed.

The new hosiery machine is of the latest type, being the same kind as is used by all the large hosiery mills.

The force of employees now number 25 people. Mr. W. H. Hicks, the superintendent, is a man of broad experience in this capacity, and is perfectly familiar with the business in all its branches.

Traveling men who have visited laundries in other cities pronounce the Madison Laundry the most up-to-date plant of its size in the state.

Mr. McKinney also stated that he would welcome visitors to his new plant at any time, and would be pleased to show them just how his laundry was being turned out, and would welcome suggestions that would perfect a more complete laundry plant.

Griffith is said to be an escaped convict from Moundville, W. Va., penitentiary. He escaped by setting the prison on fire and slew another prisoner who tried to bar his escape. The authorities were informed that Griffith is headed down the Ohio river in a launch.

NOW TESTIFIES

(By Associated Press)

New York, Jan. 25.—F. A. Shick general auditor for the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, in testimony before the Walsh Congressional Committee investigating affairs of the Shipping Board, today positively denied any part of the voucher for $260,000 was made out for expenses of Charles M. Schwab for October, 1918, or was ever charged to ship construction. He said he personally knew the voucher was charged to "profit and loss," of the Bethlehem corporation and was never put up to the emergency fleet corporation as a proper charge. His testimony contradicted Col. Abadie, former comptroller of the Shipping Board who asserted last week it was submitted as Schwab's personal expenses.

JIM PARK WILL STICK TO HIS LAW

James Park, athletic coach at Transylvania College, and an all-round athlete while attending the University of Kentucky, has refused an offer to manage the Drumright, Okla., base ball club in the Western Association, says the Lexington Leader. Park last season was on the pitching staff of the Drumright team and led the league in pitching, winning twelve out of thirteen games. He expects in the future to devote his time to his law practice, which his friends at his old home here in Richmond, felt sure he would.

Park was the leading pitcher in the Western Association last year according to the current issue of Sporting News. In addition to winning eleven out of fourteen games with a team that wasn't strong on victories, Park got across with a no-hit, no-run no-man-to-first-base game. The account in the Sporting News follows:

"Jim Park, the University of Kentucky athlete who went down to Drumright in mid-season from Oklahoma City to rest his arm—and celebrated his stay in the Western Association by pitching a no-man-to-first-base game, was the leading pitcher in the Western Association in 1920 in the matter of games won and lost and probably he will be found ranking pretty close to the top also in effectiveness if the dope digger will figure out the percentage of runs earned off him.

"Park got into fourteen games all told. He won eleven with a team that wasn't noted much for putting over victories. He gave 15 bases on balls in 124 innings—or in 14 games, figuring it either way—and he struck out 67 batters, though he was pitching easy and resting his arm."

FOUR FOXES CAPTURED

Washington, C. H., Ohio, Jan. 24.—Three thousand men and boys participated in a fox drive centering at Madison Mills, a few miles northeast of this city. The drive netted two live and two dead foxes and one rabbit. The hunters engaged in the drive covered a front of about 30 miles thru rain and muddy fields. The lushy tails of the imprisoned foxes became saturated with mud so that the frightened animals could scarcely lift them and the usually fleetfooted animals became the easy prey for the men with clubs. An ox roast was served at the town hall in Madison Mills after the drive. The captured foxes were auctioned off to Colonel Eckle for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of Madison Mills Methodist church.

Here's Boyce Taylor

Rev. Boyce Taylor, the Baptist preacher who created a stir at Murray, Ky., during the war, has been engaged in a debate in Pulaski this week, with Rev. J. L. Davis, formerly pastor of the Christian church at Mt. Vernon. Great crowds gathered to hear the debates which lasted four days.

POOR BOXES ARE STOLEN

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 25.—Among robberies with crime-wave significance was the taking of two poor boxes, contents in money unknown, from St. Philip Neri's church.

BACK FROM BIG TOUR

J. C. Cain, the popular and well-known telegrapher for the L. & N., has been spending several days with his mother and friends here after a delightful visit to Cuba and other southern points. Mr. Cain holds a position with the railroad dispatching force at Falmouth and will go there to resume his work as soon as he has concluded his visit here. Mr. Cain first went to Miami, Fla., then across the gulf to Havana, where he spent several weeks, and took in all the attractions of that wonderful winter resort. From there he went to the Bahama Islands and back to Florida.

LOUISVILLE IS GATEWAY

TO HELL, PREACHER SAYS
Louisville, Ky., Jan. 25.—Specializing on "he-vamps," Rev. Dr. Charles Welch declared: "Louisville is the gateway to the south and also the gateway to hell." Rev. J. V. Logan also testified for the "prosecution," declaring that the "disgraceful undress" of women and modern dancing are menaces to civilization and appealed to men to fight these perils as affecting their mothers and sisters.

TO MEET HIM IN HEAVEN
Madisonville, Ky., Jan. 25.—Lee Ellison, slayer of Sheriff Scott Hunter, has written his wife, in jail awaiting trial on a charge of manufacturing liquor, saying that he had made his peace with God and is ready to die January 31. INUENDO

There were two convicts, one in for stealing a watch, the other for stealing a cow. They disliked each other; and their conversation was full of innuendo. Thus the man who had stolen the cow said to the man who had stolen the watch: "Jim, what time is it?" "Milking time, Joe."

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

THAT MIGHTY SERVICEABLE TRUCK

There is this about the Ford one-ton truck that keeps it growing in popularity, namely, the good reports which the owners of Ford trucks spread abroad among their friends and acquaintances.

There is no testimony of merit quite so strong as the testimony of personal experience. It is not long after a Ford one-ton truck is sold in a community until other sales of the same truck follow, because "its works do follow it."

Well, "there is a reason." Yes, there are many reasons. The Ford one-ton truck was built to serve and to satisfy. It carries all the Ford virtues: lightness in weight, simplicity in design, strength in construction, flexibility and durability—besides it has the lowest first cost and brings the lowest operating expense in the truck market.

It is just as useful; just as necessary on the farm as it is in the city. It is just as necessary to the tradesmen, manufacturers, contractors, commission men and others in the city as it is necessary for such concerns to have a place to do business in—in other words, the Ford truck is a general utility, and because of this fact and the further fact of its universal economy it is in a class by itself.

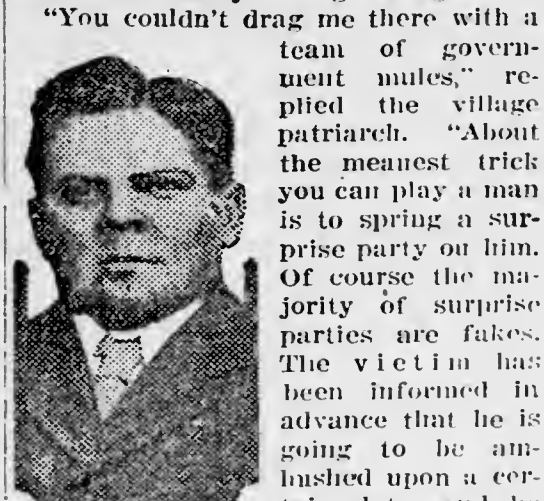

We will be glad to take your order for one or more Ford trucks and will give you fairly prompt delivery. You will likewise have the assurance of that reliable and economical after-service which is such a valuable factor in the service of Ford cars. Price: truck chassis $545.00 f. c. b. Detroit, including demountable rims and pneumatic tires.

THE SURPRISE PARTY

"OLD Singlefoot is going to celebrate his golden wedding tomorrow," said the assessor; "we are planning to give him a surprise party, and would like you to go along."

"You couldn't drag me there with a team of government mules," replied the village patriarch. "About the nearest trick you can play a man is to spring a surprise party on him. Of course the majority of surprise parties are fakes. The victim has been informed in advance that he is going to be ambushed upon a certain date, and he makes his preparations accordingly. Then when the visitors arrive at his abode he pretends to be immensely astonished, and says he never dreamed of such a visitation; but the fact that he is wearing his Sunday shirt, and has his hair parted in the middle, gives the lie to all his protestations."

"There is no serious objection to a surprise party when the victim is warned in advance, although, as I have shown, it encourages skullduggery and hypocrisy, for no man can be thoroughly honest who pretends amazement over a visit he has been planning for."

"But the genuine surprise party is an outrage, and people who resort to it should be severely punished. There's nothing more humiliating to a self-respecting man than to have a whole neighborhood blow into his dwelling when he isn't looking for it."

"When I am at home I sacrifice everything to personal comfort. I take off my shoes and collar and necktie, and roll up my shirt-sleeves and slip my suspenders down over my arms. I don't care how I look if I am feeling at ease. If I am expecting visitors, I go to my boudoir and fix myself up so I look like a bridegroom. My wife has theories, similar to mine, and doesn't believe in being arrayed in purple and fine linen all the time. But she wouldn't be seen looking slouchy for anything."

"Some months ago my wife casually remarked to a neighbor that my birthday would occur on the following Wednesday, and that neighbor, being a confirmed busybody, got busy and organized a surprise party. I never received the faintest hint of the scheduled catastrophe, and on the evening of my birthday I was lying on the floor of the sitting room, with about a hundred newspapers, around me. My wife was wearing an old wrapper, and was peering over the kitchen stove. There was nobody else in the house, and we had no idea visitors would come, for it was a bad night."

"About eight o'clock, just when I was thinking of going to bed, there was a knock at the front door. My wife thought it was some boy on an errand so she went to the door with a stockbook in one hand, and the newspaper in the other, and she gave a shriek of anguish when she saw the mass meeting on the front porch. The minute the door was open all those delegates pushed themselves in, smiling and giggling as though they were doing something mighty funny."

"Our house hadn't been in such disorder in twenty years. It looked as though a couple of amateur teams had been playing basketball in it. My wife and I began apologizing and explaining, as people will do under such conditions, although they know that nobody will believe what they say; the guests assured us that it was all right, but I could see them squinting around and making mental notes for future reference, and inside of a week the story was all over town though the house was a fright, and no respectable cow could live in it."

"That was the most miserable evening I ever spent, my friends, and I have never forgiven the people who took part in that uprising. And you may be sure I'll never treat another man as I was treated."

Lost Note Redeemed.

A soldier presented himself at the commonwealth treasury in Melbourne, Australia, and said, "I am a 20-pound note and want to be cashed." He stated that he had swallowed the note at Fleurbaix when he expected to be captured. He remembered the number, and the note in question turned out to be the only one missing from a particular issue which had been recalled.

SUFFERED SEVEN LONG YEARS

Finally Relieved by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ravenswood, W. Va. — "For seven long years I suffered from a female trouble that I was not able to do my housework. I consulted several doctors but none seemed to give me relief. I read in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I decided to try it, and before the first bottle was gone I found great relief so I continued using it until I had taken eight bottles. Now I am very well and can do my own housework. I can gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine to suffering women." — Mrs. BERTHA LIERING, R. F. D., Ravenswood, W. Va.

The ordinary day of most housewives is a ceaseless treadmill of washing, cooking, cleaning, mending, sweeping, dusting and caring for little ones. How much harder the tasks when some derangement of the system causes headaches, backaches, bearing-down pains and nervousness. Every such woman should profit by Mrs. Liering's experience. Remember this, for over forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been restoring health.

EGG WITH NAME ON IT

Because a dog had been in the habit of stealing her eggs, Mrs. Nettie Faulkner, of Woodbine, Whitley county, ran immediately to the nest to obtain the egg when the hen cackled. Mrs. Faulkner is a close friend of Mrs. W. B. Jones, of South Second street. Mrs. Faulkner found a fresh egg with her name plainly visible on one side of it with the words "January 25, 1921," on the other. The writing is in script and is perfectly legible save for the "9" in "1921," which is blurred.

Mrs. Faulkner is deeply worried about the matter and would not permit her husband to go to work. He is employed by a railroad company. Woodbine is a suburb of Corbin. Hundreds of persons have gone to the home to see the wonderful egg. Arrangements have been made to take it to Corbin, where it will be on display. A photograph of the egg has been made.
